PHONE SCAMMERS, JUST HANG UP

Over the last few months and just last week I have had some customers calling me reporting that they have been rung up by a person with an Indian accent saying that they are from Windows or Microsoft and that they have identified unusual virus activity on your PC. They then ask you to turn on your PC and get you to do something which usually involves downloading a program so that they can log onto your PC. They also say there is a charge involved. These people are scammers. JUST HANG UP!

Computer support at

iPhone Tips

IPHONE NOT KEEPING CHARGED

iPhone task manager

Did you know that pressing the home button takes you back to the main screen but doesn't close the app. This can be draining your battery and apps can be still trying to access internet. To turn off app, go into task manager by double pressing home button which brings up task manager showing all running apps.

Then press and hold an app until the icons shake and a little red – sign appears. Press the minus sign to close the task.

CAPS LOCK ON

To turn caps lock on for all writing in an email say. Double press the shift key on the screen keyboard
